C00105 ⌵	C6 Legal / Contract Terms	Need to Prioritise Human Development Over Infrastructure	Government continues to focus on large-scale physical infrastructure while neglecting foundational needs like food, health, education, and security.	Redirect government focus and budgeting toward fundamental human development priorities over prestige infrastructure. What Could Go Wrong? Starvation, preventable disease, growing inequality, and long-term decline in national productivity.	Millions of Nigerians remain impoverished while budget priorities emphasise non-essential physical projects.	Adopt a development-first budgeting model, integrate citizen feedback in policy, and implement human-centered impact assessments before approving large projects.
