C00106 □	R8 Political / Government	Collapse of Political Party Integrity	Nigeria's major political parties are being weakened by internal sabotage and lack of ideological commitment, as highlighted by Peter Obi and Uche Secondus during the book launch.	Develop law-abiding, values-driven political parties that outlast individuals and governments. What Could Go Wrong? Continued erosion of democracy, increased voter apathy, and political instability.	Frequent defections and weakening party structures driven by personal interests.	Establish regulatory frameworks that promote internal democracy, ideological consistency, and discourage opportunistic party switching.
