What Could Go Wrong?  1. Generational stagnation as youth idolize sports and celebrities rather than innovation and leadership. 2. Loss of human capital and wasted economic potential. 3. Deepening gender divides as both men and women prioritize vanity or leisure over development.					Heavy spending on sports merchandise, tickets, and lifestyle, while poverty, unemployment, and poor education persist. Social conversations dominated by trivial topics rather than pressing national			1. Promote campaigns highlighting the importance of redirecting passion toward nation-building and personal development.  2. Encourage investment in local industries, education, and entrepreneurial ventures instead of over-funding foreign entertainment.  3. Foster a culture of critical thinking, where both men and women value productivity over vanity or leisure.
