

Calabar-Abuja Highway - PHC Service

People – [SCALPED]

Minister of Works, Nigeria

- Oversees and provides strategic direction for the project.
- Key decision-maker in project management and policy implementation.

Project Health Control (PHC) Service Team

- Project Manager: Responsible for coordinating all project activities and maintaining timelines.
- Analysts and Strategists: Monitor progress, report findings, and provide insights to optimize project execution.
- Admin Team: Support the logistical and administrative tasks for smooth project operations.

Contractors and Construction Companies

- Main construction team responsible for executing the road works.
- Include engineers, supervisors, construction workers, and foremen.

Consultants and Specialists

- Civil Engineers: Provide expertise in road design and construction.
- Environmental Consultants: Ensure that environmental regulations are adhered to and that sustainable practices are employed.
- Quality Assurance Experts: Monitor the quality of materials and workmanship.

Security Personnel

- Tasked with ensuring the safety of workers and equipment, especially in high-risk areas.
- Includes collaboration with local and federal security agencies.

Community Liaison Officers

- Serve as a bridge between the project team and local communities.
- Address local concerns, manage community relations, and facilitate communication.

Local Government Officials

- Representatives from councils and administrative bodies in areas along the highway.
- Assist in facilitating local cooperation and regulatory compliance.

Environmental and Regulatory Authorities

- Oversee compliance with environmental laws and project approvals.
- Include federal and state environmental protection agencies.

Public Relations and Media Personnel

- Communicate project updates to the public and manage stakeholder expectations.
- Help in maintaining transparency and building public trust.

Suppliers and Logistics Managers

- Provide materials, machinery, and logistical support for project continuity.
- Coordinate the timely delivery of resources.

Financial Auditors and Controllers

- Oversee financial tracking and audits to prevent budget overruns and ensure accountability.
- Ensure that funding is appropriately allocated and utilized.

Community Leaders and Stakeholders

- Include traditional leaders, influential local figures, and advocacy groups.
- Important for garnering support and addressing local interests.

Labor Force

- Composed of skilled and unskilled workers involved in day-to-day construction tasks.
- Includes site laborers, machine operators, and on-site support staff.

Inspection and Compliance Officers

- Conduct regular checks to ensure adherence to project standards and timelines.
- Report findings to the project management team and stakeholders.

Technical Support Staff

- Handle the operation and maintenance of project-related technology and equipment.
- Support digital monitoring and data collection efforts.